

Guide to the Single Plan for Student Achievement California Department of Education, February 2013

Appendix E: Organizing the School Site Council

School Site Council

The California *EC*¹ requires the School Site Council (SSC) to develop a Single Plan for Student Achievement (SPSA) for ConApp programs operated at the school or in which the school participates. In addition, Pupil Retention² and School and Library Improvement Block Grant programs³ operated at the school must be included in the SPSA. The SSC must approve the plan, recommend it to the local governing board for approval, monitor implementation of the SPSA, and evaluate the results.

At least annually, the SSC must revise the SPSA, including proposed expenditures of funds allocated to the school through the ConApp, and recommend it to the local governing board for approval. Also, the SSC annually considers whether or not the school will participate in the School-Based Coordinated Program (SBCP) and indicates its decision in the SPSA.⁴

Composition

Composition of the SSC is specified in the California EC Section 52852 as follows:

- The SSC shall be composed of the principal and representatives of: teachers selected by teachers at the school; other school personnel selected by other school personnel at the school;⁵ parents of students attending the school selected by such parents; and in secondary schools, students selected by students attending the school.
- At the elementary level, the SSC shall be constituted to ensure parity between (a) the principal, classroom teachers, and other school personnel; and (b) parents; or other community members selected by parents. In schools with fewer than three teachers, this requirement may be met by establishing a SSC that is composed of equal numbers of school staff and parents or other community members selected by parents.

² EC Section 41507

³ EC Section 41572

⁴ EC Section 52800, 52852.5(b)

⁵ For example, counselors, psychologists, social workers, nurses, instructional aides, library personnel, and clerks employed at the school

- At the secondary level, the SSC shall be constituted to ensure parity between (a) the principal, classroom teachers, and other school personnel, and (b) equal numbers of parents or other community members selected by parents, and students.
- At both the elementary and secondary levels, classroom teachers shall comprise the majority of persons represented under subdivision (a) of this section.
- School districts that maintain kindergarten or any of grades one to eight, inclusive, and that maintain schools with fewer than 100 students each, and that share a common attendance area may establish a single SSC for the common attendance area.
- At the discretion of the local governing board, the middle school may, but is not required to, include student representation on the SSC.
- If a middle school SSC includes students, the SSC must meet the composition requirements of secondary schools.

Selection

The means of selecting SSC members is not specified in law, except that members must be chosen by peers. No additional membership qualifications may be required. Beyond the composition requirements stated above, no seat on the SSC may be reserved for any group or individual. Membership in most school site councils is determined by ballot, but could be decided in an open meeting by voice vote.

To ensure broad support for the selection process, and to avoid controversy over the selection of SSC members, board policy, or SSC bylaws may specify:

- The means of selecting members and officers
- Terms of office for members and officers
- The notice of elections for each peer group
- The responsibilities of the SSC and time commitment involved
- A policy of nondiscrimination, as may occur by limiting membership to a select group

Many schools elect members for a two-year term, with elections for half the members held in even years and half in odd years. This practice ensures that the SSC will not be composed entirely of new members each year. Some schools assure additional continuity by electing non-voting alternate members, who are seated as voting members by the SSC in the event of a midterm vacancy on the school site council.

Officers

In order to conduct business effectively, the SSC needs to include officers with stated responsibilities and authority, including:

- A chairperson to organize, convene, and lead meetings of the SSC
- A vice chairperson to serve in the absence of the chairperson
- A secretary to record actions taken at SSC meetings and keep SSC records
- A parliamentarian to resolve questions of procedure, often with the help of Robert's Rules of Order or similar guide
- Other officers as necessary to perform stated duties in support of the work of the SCC

Outline of Sample Bylaws

The following outline is provided as a sample to assist the SSC in developing its own bylaws. Anything that is not explicit in law should be added to site bylaws. No claim of completeness is made, nor is the sample a recommendation by the CDE.
